

“A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood”

A tribute to the beauty of Half Hollow Hills

A month-long exhibit presented at the Half Hollow Hills Library highlighting photographs of master photographer Asia Lee.

Each photograph has been published on AOL/Patch as the highlighted photo of the day.

The 16 photos in this exhibit will be used to engage high school student in a writing contest to inspire an appreciation of the local beauty, culture and communication. Winners of the essay contest will receive a college scholarship.

Scholarships will be presented with the recognition of all participating sponsors at the high school awards ceremonies. Recognition will be published on Half Hollow Hills Patch and recognized in the Melville Chamber of Commerce, Half Hollow Hills Community Library, Half Hollow Hills School District and Asia Lee's website.

The plan is to extend the run of the exhibit with future exposers at sponsor venues.

Kickoff cocktail reception will be held in February at the Dix Hills branch of the Half Hollow Hills Community Library.
